SOUTH CAROLINA

College of Hospitality, Retail and Sport Management

Department Chair of Retailing
College of Hospitality, Retail and Sport Management

The College of Hospitality, Retail and Sport Management at the University of South Carolina seeks applications and nominations for the Department Chair of Retailing. This is a tenure track position at the Full Professor level. The department chair assumes responsible for administration of all aspects of the Retail Management and Fashion Merchandising concentrations. Responsibilities include oversight and implementation of curriculum, supervision and mentorship of faculty members, employment and supervision of administrative personnel, fiscal budget management, and recruitment. The Department consists of nine tenured/tenure-track faculty, six lecturers, and two administrative personnel.

To qualify for this 11-month full-time appointment, the candidate shall have an earned Ph.D. degree in the area of retailing, merchandising, fashion or a related field; possess evidence of excellent teaching at the university level, demonstrate success in research and grant endeavors. The successful candidate will be expected to work with industry leaders, mentor faculty, meet with stakeholders, teach undergraduate and/or graduate courses, provide service to the University and profession and lead the department to the next level of excellence. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. Information about the College of Hospitality, Retail and Sport Management is available on the USC website: http://www.sc.edu/study/colleges_schools/hrsm/

The review of applications will begin on February 15, 2017 and will continue until the position is filled. The required application documents for consideration include: 1) letter of intent, 2) curriculum vitae/resume, 3) three professional letters of reference and 4) teaching evaluations for the past two years. The letters of references and teaching evaluations should be sent from applicants via email to the search committee chairperson, Dr. Matthew Brown (email: mtbrown@mailbox.sc.edu). The anticipated start date is August 1, 2017. To view the full posting and submit application materials, direct access is provided through the following address:
